1. Artillery Ammunition Depot:

- a. The commanding officer of this depot is an unidentified major and the executive officer an unidentified captain.
- b. The depot is located in the middle of a wooded area approximately three kilometers west of the railroad station at Prestranek. The area, which is accessible by road, has been camouflaged in such a way as to resemble a village. There are 25 or 26 village houses clustered around a church, and these buildings, in reality, conceal piles of ammunition.
- c. This area is strictly off limits to unauthorized personnel, and, [ ] a person has already been shot while approaching the area in the belief that it was a village. 25X1
- d. Troops to guard this area are furnished by the infantry regiment stationed at Sv. Petar na Krasu.<sup>1</sup> Approximately 50 men under the command of a company commander are made available to man ten sentry-posts located throughout the area.
- e. An unspecified quantity of artillery and small-arms ammunition, land mines, anti-personnel mines and other explosives are stored in this depot.

2. Communications Supply Depot:

The communications supply depot is managed by the Communications Section and is located in Veliki Otok. The depot has 250 vehicles, 15 or 16 new Praga automobiles, approximately 10,000 liters of gasoline, and an unspecified quantity of tires and car engines.

3. Quartermaster Depot:

- a. Officer in charge is Captain Ahmid Salci, a Bosnian. An unidentified lieutenant is also assigned to the depot.
